FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Quota International's Hurricane Relief Efforts Recognized

(Washington, D.C.) Quota International's We Share Foundation was recently named to the 2006 Associations Advance America Honor Roll for its Hurricane Katrina Relief efforts. Members of the international service program have contributed over $45,000 to provide blankets to tent city evacuees, support victims of domestic violence, support the reconstruction of schools and community centers, and assist individuals and their families.

The Associations Advance America Honor Roll is administered by the American Society of Association Executives (ASAE), Washington, DC. Now in its 16th year, the prestigious Associations Advance America Awards program recognizes associations that have a powerful impact on the public, but often go unnoticed. These associations set industry standards through innovative projects in education, skills training, business and social innovation, knowledge creation, citizenship, and community service.

Quota International, Inc., is an 86 year-old international service organization that links members of all ages, occupations, and nationalities in a worldwide network of service and friendship. The We Share foundation is its charitable arm, providing the programming necessary to support 300 clubs in 14 countries around the globe so they can contribute thousands of service hours and over a million dollars in donations annually.
