FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Quota International Honored with Two APEX 2005 Awards

(Washington, D.C.) Two Quota International media were recognized for excellence in design, editorial content, and overall communications in 2005's APEX Awards for Publication Excellence competition. Quotarian, an annual membership magazine highlighting club successes and events, received an Award of Excellence in the Printed Four-Color Magazines & Journals category. The organization's foundation, the We Share Foundation, also earned an Award of Excellence, this time in the Website category, for its website, www.wesharefoundation.org.

Nearly 5,000 entries were submitted to the competition, which is sponsored by the editors of Writing That Works: The Business Communications Report. The program recognizes excellence in publications work by professional communicators, and has twice recognized Quotarian. This is the first year the We Share Foundation website has been awarded.

Quota International, Inc., is an 86 year-old international service organization that links members of all ages, occupations, and nationalities in a worldwide network of service and friendship. Publications like the Quotarian magazine and the We Share

Foundation website provide the critical information necessary to link together members of 300 clubs in 14 countries around the globe.
