FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Quota International Honored with Two MarCom Creative Awards

(Washington, D.C.) Two Quota International publications were recognized for quality, creativity, and resourcefulness in the 2005 MarCom Creative Awards competition. Quotarian, an annual membership magazine highlighting club successes and events, received a Gold Award for exceeding high industry standards in the Magazine/Non-Profit category. The organization's foundation, the We Share Foundation, also earned a Gold Award in the Writing/Editorial category for its website, www.wesharefoundation.org.

The MarCom Creative Awards is an international competition recognizing outstanding achievement in marketing and communications. Industry professionals judge entries, looking for those companies and individuals whose work exceeds a level of excellence so high as to set a benchmark for industry standards. Only 16 percent of this year's 4,613 applicants received this honor.

Quota International, Inc., is an 86 year-old international service organization that links members of all ages, occupations, and nationalities in a worldwide network of service and friendship. Publications like the Quotarian magazine and the We Share

Foundation website provide the critical information necessary to link together members of 300 clubs in 14 countries around the globe.
