Quota International Honored With Two Awards from MarCom Creative Awards 2004

(Washington, D.C) The MarCom Creative Awards 2004 recognized Quota International with awards honoring two Quota communications for their excellence in terms of quality, creativity, and resourcefulness.

Quota International's Quotarian membership magazine received the prestigious Gold Award as a publication that exceeds marketing and communications industry standards. The organization's membership Web site, www.quota.org, was honored with the Honorable Mention Certificate.

The MarCar Awards recognizes outstanding work in the marketing and communications field and are judged by industry professionals who look for companies and individuals whose talent exceeds a high standard of excellence and whose work serves as a benchmark for the industry. Entries for these awards came from 3,344 advertising and public relations agencies, corporations, educational institutions, government entities, designers, writers, video production professionals, broadcast and cable operations, and other businesses worldwide.

Quota International is an 85-year-old international service organization that links members of all ages, occupations, and nationalities in a worldwide network of service and friendship. The Quotarian magazine highlights Quota volunteer efforts throughout the world and the Quota International Web Site provides critical volunteer information and technical support.
