Credential Information - IMPORTANT!

This document will also serve as the club voting delegate's credential form. If you are a voting delegate or an alternate voting delegate, you must have one (1) club officer sign the following to certify that you are eligible to vote. You may sign for yourself if you are a club officer. If this form is not signed, you will not be able to vote at convention. Please specify your delegate status (official or alternate). Note: each delegate has only one vote; a governor/district representative may not vote for their district and their club.

I certify that the member of my club listed above has been elected to represent the above named club at the international convention to be held in New Orleans, July 2003 as the official club voting delegate or  the alternate club voting delegate should the voting delegate become unable to vote.
