FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Quota International Elected to AAA Honor Roll for Fourth Year

(Washington, D.C) For the fourth year, Quota International, Inc., and its We Share Foundation have been elected to the 2005 Associations Advance America Honor Roll, a national awards competition sponsored by the American Society of Association Executives (ASAE) that honors outstanding programs resulting in significant benefit to American society.

Quota's We Share Foundation was elected to the AAA Honor Roll for its World Net Service Program. World Net Service encompasses the Foundation's award-winning Club-to-Club program, which helps approved Quota projects in developing countries receive donations from clubs and other donors throughout the world in support of service programs for those most in need.

Quota International is an 85-year-old international service organization that links members of all ages, occupations, and nationalities in a worldwide network of service and friendship.

For more information on Quota, contact Nancy Fitzpatrick, Deputy Executive Director.

For information on donating to the We Share Foundation, call (202) 331-9694 or visit the Web site at www.wesharefoundation.org. Donations are tax deductible in the United States.
