

Volunteer of the Year

Usha Jain

Quota International of New Delhi

Mrs. Usha Jain is the Director and Chairperson of Luxor International. She is wife of Mr. D.K. Jain, Chairman and President Luxor Group. Apart from her keen interest in the business, Mrs. Usha Jain is passionate about improving literacy and employment amongst the underprivileged people of the society.

Mrs. Usha Jain exemplifies the saying “behind every successful man there is a woman.” She has been the much needed pillar of strength in Mr. Jain’s journey of turning a small factory manufacturing pens into a successful business conglomerate that is now called the Luxor Group. She has effectively balanced her commitments towards family and profession. Mrs. Usha Jain has spearheaded many business projects and under her able leadership, Luxor International has become a powerful global brand.

Mrs. Usha Jain strongly believes that being endowed with the capacity and capability, it’s her moral responsibility to give it back to the society. She has been working tirelessly in order to raise the living standard of the underprivileged and needy. She is an active member of NGOs like Quota International, The Divya Chaya Trust, Kiwani International Club, The Mahila Mangal Trust, Kalptaru and Maitrei among many others. Thrice she has been appointed the Vice President of the Quota International, New Delhi, a non-profit organization dedicated towards the upliftment of downtrodden women and children.

Mrs. Usha Jain is sure of her role and confident of playing it to perfection. Wife, mother, businesswoman, social worker are some of many roles that she does 365 days a year.