Mabel Doreen Bainbrigge

Quota International of Redcliffe, Queensland, Australia

April 29, 2017

Mabel Doreen Bainbrigge passed away on April 29, 2017 at the age of eighty-five. She was the beloved and cherished wife of Colin (deceased). Mabel was the “mother and mother-in-law of Julie and Graham; Sharon and John; Marlene and Scott; and Lornie and Andrew. Beloved Nan of Ayden and Sarah; Leigh and Mick; Richard and Sacha; and Jack and Olivia. Great Nan of James.”

Mabel was a member of Quota International of Redcliffe for 25 years. She followed in the footsteps of her mother, Susan Thurecht, who was a founding member of Quota International of Redcliffe that chartered in 1957. Although Mabel never sought to assume office in the club, she was a dedicated and supportive member. When she owned her business, hundreds of raffle tickets for Quota International of Redcliffe causes were sold from her shop counter.

After her retirement, she could always be counted on to bring a group of friends to all of the Quota fundraising functions and to open her home when needed for service projects and fund raisers.

Mabel was a quietly spoken and gentle lady who will be much missed as a fellow Quotarian.
