Sylvia Yourell

Quota International of Redcliffe

April 4th, 2020

Sylvia Yourell was named “Quota Woman of the Year” in 1992 by Quota International of Redcliffe for outstanding and continuous commitment to the Redcliffe community. Many facilities were achieved in Redcliffe due to Sylvia and her Husband, Rotarian Owen (Chook)’s commitment, tenacity and financial support. Following that year of recognition, Sylvia asked if she could join Quota and she has been a dedicated and extremely supportive member for the past 27 years. While Sylvia has never held a club office - all of that commitment was done long before she joined Quota – she loved the club, what it stood for and what it achieved. Sylvia passed away at the age of 98 years and will long be remembered not only as a Quotarian, but as an icon of the Redcliffe community.
